We are so happy to announce that Eva Pau is the winner of the IMAGE Media PwC Overall Businesswoman of the Year Award.

Eva Pau (grown / grew / grow) up in the Asia Market store on Dublin's Drury Street, which is owned by her parents. When she was a child, her mother worked on the shop floor as a cashier and in her formative years, the store became Eva's playground.

Recently, as Commercial Director, Eva (playing / has played / played) a pivotal role in establishing the Asia Market brand, modernising the shopping experience for customers and (expanded / expanding / expand) the business out to their second location in Ballymount.

She reorganised the store layouts to make them more appealing and (easiest / easier / easy) to navigate for customers. She also established an e-commerce platform (which / who / whom) brings Asian groceries to a far wider market, and opened Duck, an authentic Hong Kong-style BBQ meats restaurant.

Speaking on the evening, she said: "I really am in shock – there (have / are / is) so many amazing women who have been nominated in this category, and it really means so much to me. From day one, (what / when / why) my parents started from a really small store on Drury Street, I saw how hard-working and dedicated they are. Their work ethic has really inspired me to be like them and to carry (on / of / for) the business."
